

In 2006, after 25 years in practice, Andrew Rogerson founded the Rogerson Law Group in Bay Street, Toronto. Since then, the firm has flourished and now has ten lawyers.

Andrew and the firm have won many awards over the years as leaders in the field of asset protection. Andrew's practice focuses on Asset Protection, using offshore tax havens; the law of Tax Residency and cross border litigation: mainly estates and family law. An experienced cross-border advocate, he is a leading authority in Canada on asset protection structures and litigating trust issues – having spent 11 of his 38 years of practice in offshore tax havens.

Andrew was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 1981 by Middle Temple and served his pupillage in the Insolvency Chambers of Michael Crystal QC, at 3-4 South Square, Gray's Inn. Since then, his extensive international legal experience includes practicing in South Africa, Australia, the Turks and Caicos Islands, Jersey (Channel Islands), Ontario, Alberta, and as a barrister in London. He is also a Fellow of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP).

Andrew is very much in demand with High Net Worth Individuals in Canada, England and Dubai and frequently lectures on professional development courses for lawyers and other professionals and has written many published articles on the subject of asset protection.
